Illinois statutory claims, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1367. Venue lies in the Northern District of Illinois in that Plaintiff is a resident of this district and Defendant is engaged in business in this district.

III. PARTIES

3. Defendant, COMPUCOM SYSTEMS, INC., (hereinafter “Defendants”) is engaged in the business of providing computer technical services and technical resources to businesses nationwide. As such, Defendant’s services qualify as an enterprise engaged in commerce as defined by the FLSA. During all relevant times, Defendant was acting directly or indirectly in the interest of the employer in relation to the employee Plaintiff and, therefore, was and is an “employer” as defined under both the federal and state statutes relied upon herein.

4. Plaintiff, GEORGE E. MAZUREK, (hereinafter “the named Plaintiffs”) and all other unnamed Plaintiffs of the class, known and unknown (hereinafter referred to as "members of the Plaintiff Class") is a past hourly employee of Defendant and designated as a Field Technician and at times performing duties as an On-Site Technician all for repair and installation type duties. As an employee performing duties for an enterprise engaged in commerce, the named Plaintiff and all Plaintiffs similarly situated also were engaged in commerce as defined by the FLSA.

IV. CLASS ALLEGATIONS

Fair Labor Standards Act

5. Pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §216(b), Count I of this action is maintained by the named Plaintiff as an opt-in representative action, for and on behalf of himself and other Plaintiffs similarly situated, who have been or will in the future be damaged by Defendant’s failure to comply with 29 U.S.C. §201 et. seq. and §251 et. seq.

Count II alleges a willful violation of the FLSA and seeks an additional, third year of limitations. Count III seeks liquidated damages under the Fair Labor Standards Act, Section 260. Plaintiff seeks to send Notice to all similarly situated Field Technicians and On-Site Technicians performing repair and installation type duties as provided by 29 USC Section 216(b) and supporting case law.

Illinois Minimum Wage Law

6. Pursuant to the Illinois Minimum Wage Law, 820 ILCS Section 105/1 et seq., Count IV of this action is brought by the named Plaintiff as an opt-out class action pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, for and on behalf of all persons similarly situated. The class represented by Plaintiff consists of all persons who have been, or will be employed by Defendant working as both Field Technicians and On-Site Technicians performing repair and installation type duties on or after the date three (3) years prior to the filing of this action.

Illinois Wage Payment and Collection Act

7. Pursuant to Illinois Wage Payment and Collection Act, 820 ILCS Section 115/1 et seq., Count V of this action is brought by the Plaintiff as an opt-out class action pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, for and on behalf of all persons similarly situated. The class represented by Plaintiff consists of all persons who have been or will be employed by Defendant working as Field Technicians and On-Site Technicians for repair and installation type duties, on or after the date five (5) years prior to the filing of this action.

V. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS RELEVANT TO ALL COUNTS

8. The named Plaintiff and all other members of the Plaintiff Class, known and unknown, at all times pertinent to the cause of action, were employed by Defendant, said employment being integral and indispensable to Defendant's business.

9. While employed by Defendant, Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff class were required to perform work duties for Defendant, which Defendant did not recognize as working time. Therefore the named Plaintiff and other members of the Plaintiff Class were required to spend certain hours performing said work duties off the clock which were to the benefit of Defendant, but for which Defendant did not compensate Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff Class.

10. Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff class were routinely permitted, suffered, or required to perform certain duties at the customer's location and/or after arriving home, all to the benefit of the Defendant employer without proper compensation for said work performed. The duties performed by Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff Class were performed and Defendant accepted the performance of the work because the duties were essential to the needs of Defendant's customers. Defendant did not recognize these hours as work hours and therefore has failed and refused to pay Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff Class for those hours.

11. In many instances, when the above described work hours are properly counted as work hours, Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff Class overall hours exceeded forty (40) in a work week, entitling Plaintiff to a premium rate of time and one-half his regularly hourly rate for those unpaid hours.
